Another very potent reason for the defeat was that 10,503 Democrats in the district were tired of the "Coolidge Outlaw."

T. J. Miller and J. M. Masterson, proprietors of "Coon Hollow" distillery, New Hope, have been arrested, charged with entering bonded warehouse during the absence of the officer in charge, and taking whisky from barrels already gauged and putting it into barrels to be stored.

[To the Editor of the Courier-Journal.]

In that country alone will you find the primitive Kentuckian of 60 or 70 years ago. In many houses you will find the spinning-wheel and loom. The people are very honest and generous, and strangers are always welcome to what they have. They are deeply aggrieved about the exaggerated reports of the disease; that they stock died, or ever suffered for food or water; that they were hard pressed for food or had neglected the sick, or left the dead unburied. They welcome immigration to that portion of the State, and say they have more land than is under cultivation. I made inquiry as to the disposal of the dead, and could not hear of a single case where they had not been promptly and decently buried. While the corn was not abundant, this was not

Rev. Wm. Rutherford, pastor of the Christian church in Salem, Ky., while they were walking home together traded overcoats with John Tyner. The latter had placed in pocket of the coat, as alleged, $700 in cash and securities. Shortly afterward Rutherford returned with "boot-money" as agreed, but no trade was declared off. The coat was re-exchanged, but the $700 and securities were gone. Rutherford arrested, but maintains his innocence.

MARRIED.

The marriage of Judge Jas. B. Campbell, of California to Miss Kitty Bell, of this city, occurred Wednesday at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John H. Bell, on Russellville street. The marriage was a great surprise to all excepting a few persons who had got an inkling of the real object of the eminent California jurist, in visiting this county, his old home. Twenty-four years ago, when a very young man, he left Kentucky to seek his fortune in the far West. He has been remarkably successful and wealth and honors have been laid at his feet by the people of his adopted State. He is now serving his second term, of six years, upon the Circuit Court bench, having been recently re-elected by an overwhelming majority over his Republican opponent. The marriage which occurred Wednesday is not without a thread of romance. When Judge Campbell had succeeded in attaining wealth and distinction, he conceived the idea of returning to Kentucky for a second wife, his first having died many years ago. A correspondence was begun with Miss Bell, who was a small child when he left, but just how he managed to bring this about we do not know. At any rate the correspondence was not a fruitless one and a few weeks ago the ex-Kentuckian returned after twenty-four years absence to claim his bride. The ceremony was pronounced by Eld. McChesney, of Trenton, Ky., at 11:30 A. M. in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Soon after the marriage the newly wedded couple left for the depot and took the noon train for Fresno City, California. A number of friends were at the depot to bid them adieu. Judge Campbell is a nephew of Mr. Ben S. Campbell, of this county, and has many friends here who know him in ante-bellum days. His bride is a most estimable and attractive lady and we congratulate him upon his good fortune.

May they realize their fondest hopes of happiness, is our sincere wish.

Ford's Opera Co.

The music loving people of Hopkinsville have in store for them an unusual treat in the advent of the Ford Opera Company with Zella Seguin as the star, and a most excellent company of well known people. This is by far the best company Mr. Ford has ever had, and we can assure our citizens of a, lead performance. The Opera selected is "The Orange Girl" by Planquette, the author of the "Chimes of Normandy," which has had such a phenomenal run at the Bijou Theatre in New York. The Charleston News-Courier says of this performance: "The Ford Opera Company achieved a genuine success last night in the presentation of Planquette's new opera, 'Nell Gwynne.' The audience was large and discriminating, and their plaudits, which were lavishly bestowed, is the best testimonial that could be offered of the excellence of the work of the company. Everybody sang unusually well, and in the title role Mrs. Seguin found the first opportunity she has had since her engagement here of displaying her lyric and dramatic talent.

It is admirably mounted, handsomely costumed, and has evidently been carefully and conscientiously rehearsed.

The company carry their own orchestra. Reserved seats at Holland & Rodgers, on the morning of the 15th.

FOR RENT—Office rooms over M. D. Kelly's jewelry store, was formerly occupied by Dr. W. M. Fuqua.

The members of the female dancing club are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Woodbridge, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

If you want to get the latest and the very best watch movement made for the money, get an "Aurora" in a gold or silver case, with a certificate at M. D. Kelly's.

Mr. W. W. Garrett, will have a sale at his brick house place, near Edwards' mill on Saturday the 20th. He will sell farming implements, household effects, etc., and some valuable live stock.

Dr. J. R. Armistead's drug store is having the old-style front taken out and replaced by a handsome modern one with large show windows. The change will improve the appearance of the store very much.

Mr. J. D. Ware has bought a building lot from Dr. A. P. Campbell, on Virginia street, opposite Mr. A. G. Bush's. The lot has a frontage of 77 feet. The price paid was $700. Mr. Ware will build a residence on it in the spring.

Mrs. Bryan, instructor in the art of making Macramé Lace, has opened rooms at Mrs. Martin's old stand, for the purpose of teaching it to ladies. It is made on a lap desk, entirely with the fingers and is very easy to learn. It is all the rage. Tuition reasonable.

The Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Co. will shortly open an office in this city in opposition to the Western Union. The office will be located on the corner of Main and Nashville streets. We will be able to give full particulars next week.

The following were inadvertently omitted from the list of bridal presents in the account of the Grinberg-Fry wedding, in our last issue: Silver cup, Miss Sara Shyer, Clarksville; silver butter-dish, J. L. Meyer, Hopkinsville.

The Jewish young gentlemen of the city gave a dance at Howe's hall, Monday evening in honor of Misses Sara C. Green, of Nashville, and Sara Shyer, of Clarksville. The affair was a decided success and was highly enjoyed by all who were present.

Mr. Jno. W. Payne declines to allow the use of his name as a candidate for re-election as City Attorney, to-morrow. There are no candidates for the office so far announced. The position is filled by election annually and the compensation is about $200. Does nobody want it?

Two bridal couples left this city on the same train Wednesday. One was bound for the Atlantic and the other for the Pacific coast. Thus it will be seen that wife-seekers come from the remotest confines of the Nation to marry Hopkinsville girls.

A communication from Mr. C. M. Brown occupies most of our first page again this week. We trust our readers will bear with us as it is not often that this wholesale advertising demand is made upon our columns. The list will be given two more insertions—Fridays only.

The young ladies are arranging to make their leap year ball a grand affair. They will have a magnificent supper in conjunction with the dance, having secured Mr. W. J. Withers new building for the purpose. The young men are already beginning to feel a nervous anxiety over the possibility of the failure to make engagements.

The Christian County Medical Society will meet next Monday at 11 o'clock, A. M., in Dr. Fairleigh's office, over the Planter's Bank. The last meeting encourages the hope of a large attendance. The experience of the essayist, Dr. R. W. Gaines, will doubtless inspire many to come.

In another column we publish the dissolution notice of the firm of Winfree & Co. Mr. R. B. Withers becomes the head of the firm and the business will hereafter be conducted by Withers & Co. Mr. Withers is a careful and clever business man, a courteous and popular gentleman, and will maintain the high-standing and popularity of the late firm of which he was a member. Mess. Withers & Co., will occupy one of the store rooms in the Withers building on Main street next year.

The George Woodthorpe Dramatic Co., played Tuesday evening to a small house. The play was a good one and the company pretty fair, but they were in a financial straight, owing to the absconding of their treasurer a few days before with the funds. An attempt was made to repeat the performance Wednesday evening, but the inclement weather prevented it and the curtain did not rise, the attendance was so small. The company will be in Nashville next week and expects to get on its feet again.

Arrangements have been perfected to move the post-office from Bridge street. This news will be hailed with joy by everybody who receives mail at this office. The room to be occupied is the large and commodious one formerly occupied by the Planters' Bank, just north of the Court-house. It will be fitted up in good style and as soon as the Court of Claims can meet and authorize a change in the building (it is the property of the county) one of the front windows will be made into a door and an arrangement will be made by which lock-boxes will be separated from the general delivery and be kept open at all times, so that those renting them can get their mail day or night. The office will be moved probably next week or as soon as the room can be gotten ready. There is a paved square in front of the building, and also a vestibule that will allow plenty of room for those waiting for the mails to be opened to stand without blocking up the street, as is the case in the present quarters. The location is much better and we take great pleasure in announcing the change.

The annual city election will occur to-morrow. The Board of Councilmen composed of Messrs. R. T. Petree, G. O. Thompson, W. M. Hill, F. J. Brownell, Wm. Ellis, J. M. Starling and E. B. Long, will be elected without organized opposition. By mutual consent of the two parties the Board will be composed of three Democrats and four Republicans. As we have before stated the ticket is objectionable in not being a thoroughly representative Board from every part of the city. However, when it is taken into consideration that probably less than fifty men in the city are eligible, the Board is about as good as any that could be selected. Five of the members are new men.

On last Wednesday evening, the tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Withers, (nee Miss Dett's Ware), they were given a serenade by the Hopkinsville Cornet Band, at their residence on South Main street. Several very fine selections were played and Mr. Withers appeared and thanked the gentlemen for the compliment paid him, in a very handsome manner.

The pavement on Bridge street is at present blocked up by material for rebuilding the house burned a few days since. Those going to the post-office are obliged to take the mud and slush in the street and this state of affairs is likely to continue until the office is removed, which will, it is hoped, be in a very few days.

Theatre Tickets.

From this date on reserved seats for performances at the Opera House will be sold at the Confectionery of Holland & Rodgers, directly opposite the theatre. Mr. Rodgers giving the sale his personal attention. The sale of seats for all entertainments will open at 9 o'clock on the morning before the day of the performance.

Mr. F. B. Sugg, of the popular cigar house of R. N. Ewell & Co., Louisville, was in the city this week.

TOBACCO SALES.

We are glad to announce to the public that the late troubles which existed in the Tobacco Board of Trade have been amicably adjusted, and all adhere to the old rules and custom of a Board of Trade Bonded inspection. This inspection gives perfect satisfaction to every buyer on the market, and insures the freest and most liberal bidding. The inspector stands between the buyer and seller while the warehouseman with vigilant eye examines every hog-head in connection with the inspector and protects his patron's interest. Mess. Smithson and Nelson, of Christian county, and P. G. Jones, of Trigg county, are the present inspectors, who for decision of character and spotless integrity are unsurpassed in their respective communities. The false packer will doubtless be dissatisfied and some may seek other markets with the hope of evading a fair inspection, but the farmer who sells his tobacco as he does his wheat, corn, hay, potatoes and other productions of his farm by assorting and grading, selling each kind and quality according to merit has all to gain. The buyer only wants a fair sample of what he buys and just in proportion as he has confidence will be his bidding.

Sales by Gant & Gaither, Dec. 10, 1884, of 4 Hds. of medium leaf, tobacco: 4 Hds. of medium leaf, $8 00, 8 30, 8 25, 8 25. 2 Hds. common leaf, $7 75, 7 00. Market was fully 3¢. cts. lower than last week. Next sale Dec. 17, 1884.

John B. Alden's Literary Revolution, though, possibly not making so large a "noise" in the world as three or four years ago when its remarkable work was new to the public, is really making more substantial progress than ever before. A noticeable item is the improved quality of the books issued. Guizot's famous "History of France," not sold, till recently, for much less than $50.00 is put forth in eight small octavo volumes, ranking with the handsomest ever issued from American printing presses, including the 426 full page original illustrations, and is sold for $7.00. Rawlinson's celebrated "Seven Great Monarchies of the Ancient Eastern World" is produced in elegant form, with all the maps and illustrations, reduced in price from $18.00 to $2.75. These are but representative of an immense list of standard works, ranking in price from two cents to nearly $20.00, which are set forth in a descriptive catalogue of 100 pages, and which is sent free to every applicant. It certainly is worth the cost of a postal card to the publisher, John B. Alden, 393 Pearl Street New York.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly

The December number, closing the eighteenth volume, fully maintains the meritorious character of this favorite magazine, and will doubtless secure a large subscription for the next volumes. The publication is remarkable for its comprehensiveness and cheapness. Among the prominent illustrated articles are "The Dramatists of To-day," "A Ramble Through the Island of Jersey," "Forms of Salutation," "The Great Elector of Brandenburg," "The Great Schools of Merrie England," etc., etc., written by popular authors. The interesting serial, "The Death-Mark," is continued, and there are several short stories, sketches, adventures and poems, furnishing very pleasant reading. There are also an abundance of brief articles, paragraphs, anecdotes, etc.—indeed the 128 quarto pages present literature of high order, and the embellishments number over 100 besides a handsome colored-plate frontispiece, "Flirtation." The price is only 25 cents a number, or $2.50 yearly, postpaid. Mrs. FRANK LESLIE, 53, 55, and 57 Park Place, New York.

A unique, handsome, and delightfully readable little Monthly Magazine, containing for the year over 300 pages and many fine pictures, all for 25 cents a year, is a recent characteristic product of The Literary Revolution. Each number contains attractive selections from some noted book—the last presents Prescott's famous chapter on the "Spanish Inquisition." What will interest a number of book-buyers will be the regular monthly news of the Revolution's progress,—an enterprise that has wrought wonders in the book world. A specimen copy of The Book Worm will be sent free to any address. John B. Alden, Publisher. 393 Pearl Street, New York.

The Messenger complains that young men by loud talking and profanity render themselves very obnoxious to the audiences at theatrical entertainments. Why don't the police put the ruffians out?

Certificate of Pomroy's Chili Cure.

CHURCH HILL, KY., Aug. 9, 1884. For a year or more, I had been having chills; and could find nothing to cure them. I tried quinine and many other things, but the chills continued to get worse until I despaired of ever curing them. I finally tried Pomroy's chili cure and from the first dose of it until this time I have not had a chill. I am now in fine health and entirely cured of the chills. I say positively that Pomroy's chili cure is a splendid medicine and to my certain knowledge it will cure the worst case of chills. M. M. HANBERRY. Dec. 9-ly.
